Subject : The Revenue Department has prolonged the e-Filing deadline extension for 3 more years, for all tax types

The Revenue Department has prolonged for 3 more years the 8-day extension of the e-Filing and electronic tax payment deadlines, after the usual deadlines for all tax types. This will be effective from 1st February 2021 to 31st January 2024, to encourage entrepreneurs and taxpayers to use TAX From Home to reduce and prevent the spread of the Coronavirus 2019 (COVID-19).

Mrs. Sommai Siriudomset, Principal Advisor on Strategic Tax Administration (Energy Industry), as the Spokesperson of the Revenue Department, revealed that, “The Ministry of Finance announced that the deadlines of the e-Filing and electronic tax payment online will be extended for 8 more days, after the tax filing deadlines specified by the law. The extension will be effective for 3 more years, starting from 1st February 2021 to 31st January 2024. The extension is applicable for tax returns filing, tax payment, and remittance, imposed by the Revenue Code, done online at www.rd.go.th for personal income tax (P.N.D.90 P.N.D.91 and P.N.D.94), corporate income tax (P.N.D.50 P.N.D.51 P.N.D.52 P.N.D.54 and P.N.D.55), withholding tax (P.N.D.1 P.N.D.2 P.N.D.3 and P.N.D.53), value-added tax (P.P.30 and P.P.36), and specific business tax (P.T.40). This will be more convenient and faster for taxpayers. Moreover, it will encourage more taxpayers to file tax returns and remit tax online, in compliance with Thailand 4.0 policy.”

The Spokesperson of the Revenue Department added that, “The Revenue Department encourages entrepreneurs and individuals to use TAX from Home to complete every tax-related task because it is easy, convenient, and safe. There is no need to go outside to promotes social distancing, and reduces and prevents the spread of Coronavirus 2019 (COVID-19). Moreover, the entrepreneurs and taxpayers who file tax returns through the internet will receive fee waiver for electronic payment made via QR Code or other electronic channels, as specified by the banks.”
