

The Revenue Department performs as the Outstanding Government Organization in protection of women's right and promotion of gender equality.

The Committee of international women day proceeding has announced on January 30, 2015 that the Revenue Department has been awarded as the Outstanding Governmental Organization in protection of women's right and the promotion of gender equality in 2015. However, the committee has distributed 15 categories awards to women, individuals and organization on 2015 international women day as well.

